BUSSE ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR PAVING NEW N.W. HIGHWAY

A united effort of all towns along the Northwestern railroad interested in the pavement of Algonquin road and its extension over Avondale Ave. to Wacker drive within the Chicago loop is bringing results. With direct connection at DesPlaines with the Northwest Highway, this route will be the most important of the northwest highways.

New developments have arisen in the all absorbing subject of paving Avondale avenue which may bring action more rapidly than has been anticipated, if plans of County Commissioner William Busse do not miscarry.

Commissioner Busse has long been an ardent advocate of the opening and paving of Avondale from Des Plaines to Wacker drive in the city, and has devoted much time and thought to the matter. His present plan, which is the result of much study of the situation and lengthy negotiations with the state highway commission, is to have the state put in a twenty foot pavement on Avondale from DesPlaines to the Cook county line. Then he plans to have the board of county commissioners continue the paving of Avondale right on into Jefferson Park, from which point he feels confident the city authorities would be willing to continue it into Wacker drive at an early date. This would save the city the expense of paving from the city limits to Jefferson, and would be a great saving to property owners along the line, since the cost would be borne from funds of the county board, and no assessments would be levied against property owners for the twenty feet of pavement. Should the city authorities and property owners desire a greater width than twenty feet it can be added at any time by the board of local improvements through the usual manner of special assessments.

Having secured the opening and paving of Avondale from DesPlaines to Jefferson Park, it is Commissioner Busse's plan to pave the old Algonquin trail from Algonquin to Talcott road, then on Talcott to Bryn Mawr and on Bryn Mawr to intersect with Avondale at Gladstone Park. The cost of this paving would also be borne jointly by the state and the county board and would be free from special assessments.

Commissioner Busse has had numerous conferences with the state highway commission and feels confident from statements made by them that they will co-operate in the work, as both improvements are recognized as necessary by both state and county authorities. He is expecting to receive the state's decision, and a favorable one, within the next two weeks.

Asked if there would be any question as to the attitude of the county board, the commissioner intimated that he expected only the fullest cooperation from his fellow members of the county body.

These two improvements, it is probable, will be the first to feel the benefit of the effects of the tax levied by the legislature a few days ago, as it is the intention of Commissioner Busse to have the cost paid from this fund.

The commissioner, along with many others, feels that the people of the northwest section are vitally in need of these two highways and that they should be constructed without any unnecessary delay. To wait for the city to complete the surveys and decide the perplexing problem of which side of the Northwestern tracks should be used from Jefferson into the city, and then to fight the case through long condemnation court sieges, would, he feels, delay the program to such an extent that it would be a hardship upon the motorists of this section of the city, who are even now laboring under the effects of overcrowded and congested highways leading into the city.

"The northwest section of the city and county is clearly entitled to its share of public improvements," says Commissioner Busse. "The state has the money and the county has it, and I can see no valid reason why we should not enjoy the benefits of these two highways, which would mean so much to our people. Delay will not reduce the cost of construction, therefore I am in favor of early action in order that we may reap the full benefits of the taxes we pay."

Following his conference with the state highway commission two weeks hence, the commissioner plans to start the program at once in the event the state decides to co-operate.

Henry Gieseke, Palatine, Dies After Long Illness

Mr. Henry Gieseke, after a long and lingering illness died Wednesday at the home of his son, Walter Gieseke at Palatine. The funeral will be Saturday afternoon, July 9, at 2 o'clock from the residence, from there to the Lutheran church. Mr. Gieseke has been seriously ill two weeks. He leaves three sons and a daughter.

Prosperity is said to be ruining this country, but the farmers say they have not suffered seriously from its effects as yet.

BUSSE SEES LIGHT

In the news columns this week appears an article dealing with the plan of County Commissioner William Busse to construct the Avondale and Algonquin-Talcott-Bryn Mawr highway from state and county funds, including that part in the city as far as Jefferson Park. It is the most logical suggestion we have yet seen or heard, and is probably born of the commissioner's intimate knowledge of the territory and long experience in public life.

The fact that the commissioner proposes to have the entire cost of these highways paid from the gasoline tax will be a balm to the wounded feelings of motorists who were not overly pleased with the legislature for voting the tax. When we of the northwest side pay the tax we will at least have the satisfaction of feeling that we will get something tangible and of a local nature for our money.

Commissioner Busse feels confident, he tells the Weekly, that the state will co-operate with the county board in an early construction of these two highways, thus lifting motorists from a congestion that is becoming more burdensome day by day.

When the state and county build them as far as Jefferson, it should not be difficult to secure early action from the city authorities for extending Avondale on to connect up with Wacker Drive.

The board, however, should not be hampered by insistent demands that are not consistent with the findings of their engineers, whom we must concede are competent to pass up on such matters than the average layman. — The Jefferson Park Weekly.

COM. BUSSE ON TRIP TO EUROPE

Cook County Commissioner Wm. Busse and Mrs. Busse will leave Sunday, July 10, on a trip which will take them to Europe. The commissioner plans to make a study of road conditions, civic halls and zoological gardens, while abroad and hope to bring back with him some ideas that will be beneficial in many ways to Cook county. Probably no member of the county board has ever spent as much time and interest in "studying" his job as Mr. Busse. While the trip will outwardly be a vacation, he will lose no opportunity to be acquainted with the manner in which European cities and countries handle problems which are identical to what exist in Cook county.

The commissioner will visit London, Brussels, Paris, Lucerne, Heidelberg, Munich, Hamburg, Bremen, Vienna and other cities. The trip will be a two months tour and take in all points of interest as well as places where knowledge can be gained in city and village planning as well as county problems. Mr. Busse, as mayor of Mt. Prospect, is vitally interested in that village, which he hopes to make one of the most beautiful and model towns of its kind in northern Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Busse will be accompanied on their trip by Mr. and Mrs. George Busse.

Arlington Heights Library Is Now Open on Sundays

The board of the Arlington Heights Public Library recently arranged for the library to be open on Sunday afternoons from 2 to 5 in order to see if it will be used at that time. The first day, Sunday, July 10, will be the first day. The experiment will be continued for a month and record will be kept of the number visiting the library on Sundays during that time.

In one way it might seem that this is a bad time of year to make the experiment, for so many folks are away, and so many others go away on Sundays. But it has been found that the library is used even more during summer than during winter.

There are 21 magazines coming to the library regularly now, so that is an added inducement. These magazines include the Saturday Evening Post, The Ladies Home Journal, The American Boy, Popular Mechanics, Girl's Life, Nature Magazine, Child Life, The National Geographic Magazine, The Literary Digest, The American Magazine, The Worlds Work, The Bankers Monthly, Success, The Youths' Companion, St. Nicholas, Scribners and others.

The librarian will be in charge Sunday afternoons and books will be loaned just the same as on Wednesday and Saturday. Visit the library Sunday afternoons to read or to get books. Encourage your children and neighbors to do the same. The library is here for you to use. It is free. Its services will be extended as you make use of them.

There is a splendid poster exhibit in the library this week. It is worth seeing, too.

GIVE PLANS FOR NEW HOSPITAL AT DES PLAINES

The new $400,000 hospital to be erected in Maine township between DesPlaines and Park Ridge will be thoroughly modern in its appointments and service for the patients will be one of its most conspicuous features according to Henry J. Schlacks, 320 Tower Court, Chicago, architect who has drawn the plans for the structure.

The building has been designed in accordance with the latest ideas of hospital construction, being a long and narrow building, so that sun light may enter every room. The front elevation of the hospital will show a structure four stories high, 250 feet long. The width of the hospital will be only 42 feet, which permits ample corridors and large rooms on either side. In the rear will be a wing 125 feet long and 42 feet wide.

Sun porches will be placed on each floor at the ends of the corridors. The elevators and stairways will be isolated from the main corridor so that the sounds of traffic up or down will not reach the patients. The service facilities include diet kitchens, dressing rooms, chart rooms, baths, toilets, x-ray and waiting rooms. Provision is also made for internes and nurses who will be needed to care for the patients.

The operating rooms are unique, since each room is built within a room, so that there has been almost complete elimination of fixtures. Radiators will be behind the walls sending their heat into the operating room from the outside. A system of lighting which will send a clear diffused light, wholly lacking in glare, will be employed. The room within a room idea for operating rooms is new in America although a few hospitals in North Germany have had such rooms in recent years.

An archway at entrance features the exterior of the hospital. It is large enough to accommodate a number of automobiles at the same time, so that during storms doctors or visitors at the hospital will be able to park their cars under shelter. The hospital will have a capacity for 154 patients according to the preliminary plans which call for unusually large rooms.

The permanent organization of the Maine Memorial hospital campaign has just been completed and four outstanding business men of northwest suburban community have agreed to direct the activities of the fund raising.

Ning Eley, DesPlaines City Attorney and director of the First National Bank of DesPlaines, will serve as chairman, it was announced by Harry H. Talcott, president of the DesPlaines State Bank who will serve as treasurer for the committee.

Vice chairmen are: Fred I. Gillick, Park Ridge real estate operator, William H. Malone, president of the American Mexican Refining and well known Park Ridge real estate man, and R. H. Lanigan, of the Benjamin Electric Mfg. Co., a prominent resident of DesPlaines. "The community is fortunate in having as chairman for the hospital campaign a man so able in leadership as Mr. Eley," said Mr. Talcott in making the announcement of Mr. Eley's acceptance. "He is known throughout the northwest suburban area and has a reputation for doing whatever he undertakes. Supported by an organization, built around such men as our vice chairmen, the project is certain to 'go over the top' and provide hospital facilities so badly needed by this section of a hundred thousand."

The commissioner will visit London, Brussels, Paris, Lucerne, Heidelberg, Munich, Hamburg, Bremen, Vienna and other cities. The trip will be a two months tour and take in all points of interest as well as places where knowledge can be gained in city and village planning as well as county problems. Mr. Busse, as mayor of Mt. Prospect, is vitally interested in that village, which he hopes to make one of the most beautiful and model towns of its kind in northern Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Busse will be accompanied on their trip by Mr. and Mrs. George Busse.

Announce Prize Winners Of July Fourth Parade

The parade committee announces the following prizes awarded in the parade contest at Arlington Heights July 4th.

The Annual Battle

TOO OLD TO WORK MAN KILLS SELF

Martin Malloy, 66 years old, who has been rooming at the Sadecky home, Arlington Heights committed suicide by inhaling gas Wednesday morning. In a note left he gave inability to find work as the cause of his act. The note stated that drink was not to blame. The inquest was held at the Lauterburg & Oehler chapel Thursday morning.

About 8:30 a maid at the Sadecky home noticed that the bed was empty. About 10 o'clock, Alex Angeloff finding the odor of gas in the hallway, notified Mr. Sadecky, who entering the room occupied by Malloy found him upon the floor with a gas tube in his mouth. A note was left, reading as follows:

"July 5. To whom it may concern: No one to blame. Only I am too old, 66 years, 7 months. No autopsy needed. Drink is not the cause. Goodbye to everybody. I hope they will forgive me."

Deceased had been out of work for some time and had borrowed five dollars the preceding Saturday from Frank Gruber.

He acted as one of the night towermen at the Dunton street railroad crossing, coming on duty at ten o'clock. He lost this job on account of failing to report for work. Two years ago, he is reported to have had a fair sized deposit at a Barrington bank. He came to Arlington Heights from that town.

Lauterburg & Oehler took charge of the remains and failing to locate any relatives, will make the interment.

Steel for Race Track Is Now on Way Here

At least 125 car loads of steel will be used in the race track stand being erected at Arlington Park, a quarter of a mile west of Arlington Heights. Delay in the construction of the permanent form has hindered the actual erection of the steel work, but the cement is now being poured and as soon as the cement hardens, the erection will be rushed. The Wisconsin Bridge and Iron Works has the necessary machinery upon the job. The huge cranes rising up in the air with freight trains and the former hay fields, has the tendency to cause passersby to "sit up and take notice."

The Northwestern is now installing switches and side tracks on the north side of their right of way. The great number of curiosity visitors to the track, necessitates the exercising of police powers to keep the "job" free from interruption. Visitors who come on business should first make known to the police the object of their visit.

Elmhurst Man, Looks for Work; Killed by Train

Walter Hreisch, of 164 Haven St., Elmhurst, received injuries on the Belt line tracks near River Rd. north of DesPlaines Tuesday night that resulted in his death the following morning at the Cook County Hospital. Both arms and a leg were severed. A. C. M. & St. P. Ry. train is supposed to have hit him. He was discovered by a C. & N. W. train about 12:30, which picked him up and brought him to DesPlaines where the Lauterburg & Oehler ambulance took him to the county hospital. The man was conscious to the last. He stated that he resided with his father in Elmhurst and had been employed at Butler Bros., until recently. He had been hunting for work when he was hit by the train.

REAPPOINT E. H. BOLTE TREASURER

The board of trustees of the Village of Arlington Heights held another busy meeting Tuesday night. Various matters of importance to the welfare of the village were discussed. These included, additional water supply, and electric street lights. The board also hopes to have definite plans for the enlargement of the Arlington race track and a four inch main was laid to the track last week. This service will continue only as long as the village has a plentiful supply, but in order that the supply shall be as great as possible, the Arlington Seating Company will temporarily furnish water to the village 21 hours a day. The board authorized the mayor to enter into a contract with the Seating Company to pay 10 cents a thousand gallons for all water pumped. For the past year that company has been furnishing water to the village nine hours a day at the rate of 60 gallons a minute.

The board also directed that plans be made at once to locate the well and to make the expenditure that was authorized by the voters over a year ago for an addition. The voters at that time placed their approval upon the construction of the school house, the sale of these bonds were delayed.

"The Public Service Co., has had 'samples' of electric street lighting on North Dunton street the last few weeks. The board will meet Monday night to discuss the lighting question."

Palatine School Told to Continue

In an order issued July 5 by Judge Hugo Friend of the circuit court the construction work of the Palatine Township High School will not be stopped. The motion for a temporary injunction on the part of the certain petitioners was continued. The board of education upon the part agreed not to expel in the construction of the school house an amount greater than the constitutional limitations. The order entered by the court is as follows:

City State Bank of Chicago, et al. vs. Charles B. Morris, et al. On motion of Stedman, Dingle & Leitch and Ralph L. Peck, solicitors for complainants, for a temporary injunction, and upon affidavits in support thereof, and it appearing by statement of counsel for defendants that the contracts complained of and in a total in excess of the constitutional limitation have been abrogated, and that it is not proposed by the Board of Education or the contractor to expend any sum for any building in excess of said constitutional limitation, and that the said building now and to be contracted for shall not exceed the sum prescribed by the constitution. IT IS ORDERED:

That the motion for a temporary injunction be and is continued until the case is at issue under the pleadings.

Enter: July 5, 1927.

HUGO FRIEND, Judge. The state legislature recently passed a new law which if it applies to Cook County schools would legalize a bond issue totaling about $150,000. With the authority to issue anticipation warrants that the law gives the school board, there is every prospect that the Palatine high school can be completed within the law.

SMALL TORNADO HITS BARTLETT

A small sized tornado wrecked havoc in Bartlett and Ontarioville Wednesday evening. Bartlett suffered the worst. The storm came from the southwest. The wind was terrible, knocking over silos and trees throughout the country. The squall was about six miles long and a mile wide.

The damage by the wind was augmented by rain and hail. Hardly a pane of glass was left on the west and south side of some of the buildings. The hail was as large as hen's eggs. The streets in Bartlett the next morning were green, where the hail had beat off the leaves from the trees. Some small grain was actually cut off as if it was mowed. The damage is over $1,000. Some idea of the strength of the wind can be gained by the fact that in the real estate office at Ontarioville, a metal flag pole 35 feet high, was bent in half, the flag still flying.

Lay Corner Stone of Acacia Mausoleum

In the presence of 6,000 persons the cornerstone to the new million dollar Acacia Mausoleum, 7800 Irving Park boulevard, was laid Sunday June 24, with impressive Masonic rites.

The mausoleum, which was also dedicated is a unit of the $10,000,000 cemetery project started five years ago.

Within five years the cemetery grounds have been improved, roads built, an administration building, and chapel built, and the mausoleum dedicated. Nearly 2500 automobiles were accommodated on the grounds Sunday. Following the exercises held at 2 o'clock, the guests made an inspection tour of the grounds and buildings. Many delegations from out of town attended.

The chapel used for Masonic services, is a facsimile of the Masonic lodge hall. It has already been the scene of 600 funerals.

The new mausoleum is destined to mark a change in the form of burial. Funerals may now be held at night instead of in the daytime.

Family United For First Time In Fifty Years

Two brothers and two sisters who have not been together for fifty years were united at the home of Mrs. Margaret Niemeyer at Arlington Heights this week. Mr. Wm. Hennemann, who has just arrived from Germany, was accompanied by Chicago by his brother William, who resides in New York. Mrs. Lucile Schoenemann of Chicago, is one sister and Mrs. Niemeyer the other. The reunion was held Sunday. The brother of Germany is planning to stay here several months. He says that Germany is recovering from the effects of the war, although he still uses a scythe in the cut-

Damage from Storm Loss to Community

Under a decision handed down by Attorney General Carlstrom, if a contractor agrees to move a certain amount of dirt and while carrying out this contract a portion of the transfer is displaced by flood the contractor is not liable to loss.

The test came under a query from Jersey county where officials of the county entered into a contract for a fill at a certain price per cubic yard. During the course of the work a flood washed out 200 cubic yards of the fill and the state's attorney asked if the contractor was entitled to full pay.

Attorney General Carlstrom ruled the contractor had moved the amount of dirt agreed upon and the loss must be borne by the community, but if the contract had specified work was to be completed for a certain price, the loss incurred as a result of the flood would fall upon the contractor.

MOTOR CLUB OPPOSES GAS TAX IN SUIT

Legal attack has been made against the gasoline tax. Frederick U. Mason of the law firm of Miller, Gorman, Wells and Norton, and Joseph H. Braun, counsel for the Chicago Motor Club, have filed a bill in the circuit court of Sangamon County, drafted for the purpose of testing the validity of the gasoline act and enjoining its enforcement.

The bill runs against the state treasurer, Omar N. Cate, director of the department of finance, A. C. Bollinger, and the auditor of public accounts, Oscar Nelson. "It seeks to restrain these officers from using any of the money appropriated by the legislature for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the act," says Charles A. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor Club.

The bill was not filed by any individual tax payer, but by the Chicago Motor Club itself as a resident and tax payer of the state in the plea that the organization owns and operates a fleet of motor vehicles using gasoline as motor fuel. The bill also states that A. C. Bollinger, director of the department of finance of the state is about to expend portions of a $50,000 appropriation for the printing of various forms in connection with the collection of the tax, and is about to expend other portions of this appropriation for the employment of clerical help and the purchase of office furnishings and supplies and in fact that some of the $50,000 already has been spent.

"The bill points out that the gas tax is illegal because it exempts kerosene oil from the tax and many motor vehicles in the state are propelled by kerosene and that the failure to include kerosene is discriminatory."

"It also points out that there are millions of gallons of gasoline stored in Illinois and owned by persons who do not fall within the category of distributors as defined in the sections of the statute, and that none of the gasoline so stored will be taxed. Consequently the failure to tax this stored gasoline is unfair and discriminatory."

"It further points out that the law discriminates between importers, refiners and manufacturers of gasoline and persons who buy gasoline from importers, manufacturers, or refiners. It is further alleged that the Chicago Motor Club has paid into the state of Illinois sums of money for the registration of its motor vehicles upon the public highways is imposed for the same purpose as the tax required to be paid for registration, and therefore, the tax is null and void."

The bill also alleges that the act is invalid because it violates the constitution of the state of Illinois, which requires the purpose of an act to be expressed in its title, in that the title purports to impose a tax on the sale and use of motor fuel, but Section One of the act exempts kerosene oil, kerosene oil being in fact a motor fuel, and in extensive and daily use as such. Therefore, the purpose of the act as expressed in the provisions of the act is not to tax all motor fuels, but only certain motor fuels. Furthermore, that the legislature cannot merely by its declaration change the characteristics of kerosene and declare it not to be a motor fuel, when, as a matter of fact, it is a motor fuel. Also that the provisions of the act itself do not attempt to impose a tax on motor fuel, but only on motor fuel used for one particular purpose, viz., the operation of motor vehicles on the public highways and the title says the purpose is to impose a tax on the sale and use of motor fuel, the act itself declares the purpose not to tax motor fuel, but to tax persons using the highways for the operation of motor vehicles and that, the act is not expressed in the title.

"The Chicago Motor Club," concludes Mr. Hayes, "is making this fight on behalf of the motorists of the state and proposes to see the legal battle through to a finish. We feel that it is right and proper that the Chicago Motor Club should file the bill in its own name for the reason that the Chicago Motor

COMPLAINTS HIT 'STOP AND GO' TRAFFIC SIGNS

Are "stop and go" traffic signs a nuisance to traffic? According to the Chicago press, a special committee of the county board is checking up such delays. The complaint is made that traffic congestion upon the highways on Sundays and holidays are not alone attributable to narrow pavements. The stop lights are partly to blame and the ones at Arlington Heights are among those mentioned in particular.

The board has authorized the paving of Dundee Road from the Northwest Highway to the Barrington road. Commissioners Busse and Schmidt recently made an inspection tour that included the Plum Grove Ave. extension and Algonquin road and some action upon such highways can be expected in the near future.

The Chicago Tribune in commenting upon the efforts of the county board to speed the auto's way, stated as follows:

"Somewhat preliminary to taking up the question of highway widening through the county to provide high speed transportation and comparative safety for motor traffic the county board road and bridge committee yesterday decided to occupy its present leisure by attending to some minor traffic nuisances."

"First under this head considered was the tendency of some of the smaller settlements in the county to erect and operate stop lights at frequent intervals which prove a far reaching obstacle during Sunday and holiday traffic jams."

"On July 4 automobile traffic was blocked on the Wisconsin highway through Libertyville by these lights until traffic jammed half way to the state line." President A. J. Cermak told the committee. "It is impossible to estimate the amount of gasoline wasted in running engines while traffic was halted three times at stop lights going through the village, despite the fact that no cross traffic was in sight."

Same Trouble Elsewhere
"Reports of similar conditions at Arlington Heights, Crete and Blue Island were made, and William Busse, chairman of the committee, announced that he had appointed a sub-committee to inquire into this situation and to inform the committee what steps could be taken to abate this added factor in the slow motion picture produced on Sundays and holidays on Cook county highways. The members of the sub-committee are Commissioners Oscar W. Schmidt and Louis Nettleshorst and President Cermak."

The subject of grade crossings of highways was touched on and a committee composed of Commissioners John W. Jaranowski, Francis L. Boutell and Emmet Wheelan was named to make an investigation.

LaSalle Caravan To Visit at Park Ridge

Burkitts Service Station announced today that it has been successful in having a one day display of the famous LaSalle Caravan for Tuesday, July 19.

"I have been hoping for some time to bring to this city a comprehensive display of the LaSalle line," said Mr. Burkitt, "and I am happy, indeed, that this is now to become possible."

"The LaSalle Caravan consists of the entire LaSalle Line of open and closed cars and includes the very latest body designs and color combinations."

"For one day all of these cars will be on exhibit in my show room. On that day, and for a week following, we shall conduct a Ride and Drive Week on LaSalle to give local car owners the opportunity to take the wheel of the LaSalle and to test its mettle for themselves. This invitation is extended to all car owners, whether they are now in the market, or not, as we are very anxious that everybody learn exactly what this car can do."

"The speed possibilities of the LaSalle are well indicated by the fact that the car was chosen as pace maker for the Memorial Day automobile race at Indianapolis this year. This is a real honor, as the pace maker car must have speed far above the average fast car."

"LaSalle acceleration has already become well-established, as its speed and its ability to work in and out of traffic safely has already been responsible for many sales."

"As the factory is at the highest production yet attained and still far behind in orders, I feel that we have been fortunate in securing the Caravan at this time."

"We anticipate a large number of visitors at the exhibit on Caravan Day and have arranged to give everyone who desires a demonstration either then or during LaSalle Drive Week, which follows."

Wm. Busse Funeral Will Be Held Sunday

Wm. Busse, beloved husband of Augusta nee Strauss, father of Wm. and the late Esther Busse, funeral service at residence Sunday, 2:30. Interment at Friedens cemetery, Bensenville.

OBSERVER'S NOTES

We should all be now confessing. That for much that is distressing. We have been ourselves to blame. Yet what good is confession if it doesn't teach a lesson—And hinder us in future. From errors—just the same.

Every Fourth of July there are hundreds of accidents from fire-crackers, toy pistols and other so-called harmless toys and explosives. The sale of toy guns and pistols has been for several years prohibited by law, and yet all over the land for several days preceding and following the Fourth the noise and racket of these dangerous senseless missiles is heard.

Are we an intelligent Christian nation? If so why do we cling to the heathen or pagan custom using noisy explosives to express our patriotism and joy? I do marvel that we should cling to a custom that each year causes so great a loss of life and property. Aside from the fire and blood poisoning danger, helpless sick people are often hurried from the world by the crash and racket of our celebration. Speaking of the terrible disaster at DesPlaines, a Chicago paper says, "for five years the sale of explosives has been prohibited—and see how far we have progressed?"

Just to sound a note of cheer, will tell you that I heard the other night, chirping so cheerily, so soothingly and even drowsily, in the vines over the porch. A cricket; the herald of summer, and the awakener of a whole train of dear old home memories. No. Not "the cricket on the hearth," but the cricket in the vines, over the porch. It may be the same old cricket, that used to chirp in the honeysuckle vines over the north porch at home years and years ago, at any rate he has inherited the same drowsy, cheery song.

Absurd to remind you that summer is here after those 90 in the shade days last week. Yet have you noticed how delightfully refreshing the showers come at just the right time? Mosquitoes not vicious as yet though you may "tap on wood" as you speak of this immunity if you are superstitious. Summer is here, green peas, daisies, wild roses and all the summer wild flowers in bloom. Hosts of brown eyed Susans we have preserved in the meadow, and down the "daisy wind" oxeys daisies, Susans, and wild roses by the hundreds. Yes, 'tis summer!

Summer? Yes, and in the language of the immortal—R. H. L. "You may take them off now." Do you know I believe the laziest people make most fuss about the heat. When one is busy and interested they don't notice uncomfortable conditions so much. Oh, yes, its summer out in the garden and beside new peas, and fresh vegetables, the army of buys are waiting. Big bugs, little bugs, middle sized bugs, and squash and potato bugs. Think all bugs have heard of that proposed bill to "limit production" as a means of aiding the farmers? Yes, 'tis summer!

And the tall poplar trees astir. The giants summer calls to her. And stars along the evening sky. In bright procession moving by.

The cone shaped maples—mantled in. With heavy robes up to the chin; Elms that so proudly new leaves bear—As summer girls their bright gowns wear.

Yes, it is summer and at last. Comes freedom from the cold winds blast. The trees straighten their backs and sigh. And shake their leaves, defiantly.

So over the seasons in their train. Like an old song, the same refrain. Or water rippling o'er a stone—Or like my thoughts, when I'm alone!

So "east meets west"—when President Coolidge attends the tri-state roundup July 5th. Fine thing too, as it gave him an insight into the reasons for opposing those barbarous sports, called rodeos which the commercial interests of our cities are staging for selfish reasons. At this great western gathering a petition was circulated to ask for legislation against this rodeo business, and our president heard the convincing arguments against this cruel so called sport. It is good—when east meets west.

Father—who was nature wise—used to say, corn should be knee high the Fourth of July. Now for the life of me, I don't know whether he meant human knees or the knees of horses. What I want to say is that out in the garden the corn is knee high, if you don't call the bottom of our flappers dresses knee length. Some man-body pains—said 19 inches should be the limit above the floor. Now that corn is all that and more if you measure the blades! Haven't half the interest in the length of "skirts" I have in the height of that corn!

Did you hear about that big black bear roaming about the streets of Chicago Tuesday night? Weighed 800 pounds "on the hoof." No wonder poor Mike was scared stiff. Perilous times these—wild beasts roaming the streets of Chicago. Sam and Henry lost in the woods and in danger of being devoured by "canibals." Congressmen at Large and our president out hunting big fish in the western wilds. If he don't get back on the job pretty soon the varmints will catch us and our country go to the bow wows.

"Brittania Rules the Waves"—but all waves are not "permanent." Neither are all "rules" without exceptions. Awfully interested in this Geneva conference and why shouldnt we have our naval force and our air force, as big in proportion to our national size and proportions, and our coast line as Britannia or any other old girl? "Ho for our Gun boats ho!" Ho! for the foaming sea! Our Ho for our battle ships in every clime and zone. The thunders of their mighty guns shall shake the tyrants throne! That was the spirit of '60. Why crawl lower now?

Travel is a fine thing, and going abroad gives a change and a sort of education. Yet sometimes safety lies in staying at home. The Fourth as one of our well known families started out in their car motor proposed going to DesPlaines but the "man at the wheel" demurred said thought it would be better to stay in Arlington Heights and see the fine things going on in our home town even through the fireworks in the round up. How wise was their decision for had they been at DesPlaines they might have been—surely would have been in the crowds caught in that sad accident.

As I write these notes am not informed as to how many of our townspeople were in that tragic finale to a beautiful day. "Eddie" Kehe, was one of the burned though not seriously. It does seem Ed has more than his share of misfortunes and I'm hoping this latest will not prove a hindrance to his busy prosperous life. Many of the injured are well known and connected with our citizens. And some who are seriously affected have relatives in the Heights.

All of us of the old Presbyterian church in the years gone by, remember dear bright Ruby Childley. She is now Mrs. McGuire, and with her little sons had come from California last Saturday to visit brothers and sisters in DesPlaines and her brother A. C. Childley family in the Heights. Unfortunately her little boys were near the terrible explosion and were badly—though it is hoped not seriously injured. Two little Childley boys were also among those injured. Sons of Mrs. McGuire's brother in DesPlaines.

Have I mentioned, among the "before the Fourth" happenings, Mr. Roscoe Reed gave his music class a picnic last Friday, the day after his recital. It was held in Deer Grove and attended by the pupils of his music class and their mothers and friends. It proved to be a very very happy affair, with sandwiches and cake in place of pianos and tune counts. Picnics for small groups are delightful and I'm just going to have one in Deer Grove "just me" and one or two others, including a lovely musical young woman who can make a piano of an old log, and now that Mr. Reed has pioneered the way—watch us!

Mr. Reed has a number of pupils at Childerly and I presume they joined his class in their pleasant outing.

There is much to comment on in these notes, must go by default this week, the Fourth, the excitement, and the heat have driven some best things out of mind. If you have a bright star glittering thought or some important incident or improvement you wish to have mentioned, please telephone Observer about it. There is much I should

The decorators are expected to begin their work before the close of the week. This will necessitate our services to be conducted in our school hall. German service will be held at 9:45 a. m. and English service will be held at 1 o'clock.

Next Tuesday, the Dorcas aid will gather for its monthly meeting. All members are kindly urged to appear for the discussion of important matters.

"Certainly we need churches," I overheard a man say who never attended church himself, and never gave a nickel for its support. The surprising thing about it is the fact that people can make such a statement without seeming to understand the absurd position they occupy. Confessing the absolute necessity of the church and its work, yet moving not a finger to support it in an active way! What the church needs is not a large following of mere wellwishers, who can occasionally pat the preachers on the back, the church needs active workers and believing Christians. The big business of the church is not the material development of a community, that is merely a by-product of its work—the great task of the church is the preaching of God's Word to instruct and comfort doubting, struggling sinners.

MUZZLE YOUR DOGS

The village ordinances require that all dogs be muzzled during July and August. A prompt compliance with this ordinance is requested. The sudden hot weather is as hard on the dogs as on the people and the police will proceed to pick up all dogs unmuzzled.

love to mention that is by many taboo. Send me a safe and sane boost when you can. Now I'm going to ring off with just one more mention of our fiery peril.

Only a fire cracker,
Or a harmless little toy
Yet it made a helpless cripple
Of a trusting girl or boy.

Only a flash of powder
Only a small toy gun
Yet it causes deadly poison
And takes the life of your son.

Only a blazing rocket
Far up in the evening sky
Yet its flames consume a city
And a score of people die.

And why the pagan missiles
That so often bring distress?
Why not in beauty and music
Our joy patriotic express?

O, happy the little children
All breathless waiting nigh
Last night as rockets flashing
Lit up the evening sky.

Alas, for the throngs, expectant
Who never of danger dreamed
When that deadly bomb—exploding
In a fiery death blast streamed.

O, the horror and confusion
The agony and the pain
When blinded—in delusion
Terror and blackness reign.

O, the cries of trampled children
And the wail of mortal dread
When wounded, burned and bleeding
Humanity lost its head.

Will that agony and torture
On the innocent blindly sent
In the future be forgotten
When that bomb the echoes rent?

Will the lure of fiery demons
Be ever again employed
By a wise intelligent people
Who would danger and death avoid?

Shall the cries of helpless victims
In vain protection implore?
O, may sense safety and reason
To saner rejoicings restore.

May so-called harmless explosives
That flash with noise and blaze
Give way to nobler expression
Of joyful emotions—and praise.

The practice of local people of dumping rubbish upon the septic tank property must stop. Parties having rubbish which they desire to dispose of, should get into communication with Fred J. Hinz, street commissioner, who will advise them how to dump it and where. A number of people have been put to a lot of extra expense by not observing this rule. If this warning is not heeded, stronger measures will be used.

Fred J. Hinz, Street Comm.

NEIGHBORS

Almost everyone has neighbors. Neighbors may be divided into two classes; those who have children and those who haven't. Neighbors who have children are forever giving cause for complaint by letting their children walk over your grass and scrubs. Neighbors who haven't are always unreasonable about complaining of your children who walk over their grass and shrubs.

When both you and your neighbors have children, it is the neighbors' children who invariably lead your children astray. On the other hand, neighbors are invariably the sort of people who believe that your children lead their children astray.

Nothing is so dangerous as intimacy between neighbors. Once befriended them and they can sin without punishment, for the laws of friendship, forbid your speaking to neighbors as neighbors should be spoken to. They are the people who do not hesitate to borrow your lawn mower, your watering pot, your garden hose, your monkey wrench, or ax, or saw, or hatchet, or hammer, which is quite objectionable.

On the other hand, they rarely have an extra block of butter, a pound of sugar, a bottle of olive oil or an electric fuse when you happen to need them.

Neighbors' windows have an unpleasant way of looking into your windows. The result is that you can never look into their windows without their seeing you. Because you have seen them in curl papers or with their hair down it is reasonably certain that they have seen you the same way, and the thought isn't pleasant.

On the other hand, neighbors are convenient for leaving keys with and receiving laundry, groceries, and such things when you are out. It is also agreeable to

BENSENVILLE

Born June 30, at the Elmhurst hospital, a daughter, Mrs. and Mr. Emil Doherty. Mother and daughter reported doing nicely.

Marguerite, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyall Sampson, is under the care of Dr. Oakes, having been taken ill during the extreme hot weather last week.

The cooling rain last Friday no doubt saved many people from being overcome by the heat that seemed almost unbearable.

The recital given at the high school building June 30 by the pupils of Miss Volpat and Mrs. Peck was very much enjoyed by a large audience. Each and every member of the program did exceptionally well and was called back on the stage again.

Miss Volpat and Mrs. Peck, who took part in the recital presented her a large basket of flowers at the close of the program and Mrs. Peck, who lives in Bensenville, received a gift from her pupils at her home.

The Herman Eckler family enjoyed a visit from Mr. Eckler's mother and aunt, who came from down state to spend the week-end and the Fourth in Bensenville.

Mr. Albert Tompkins' grandmother came from Oak Park to spend the Fourth with the family of her grand son. Grandma who is hale and hearty in her 87th year enjoys getting out into the country for a change from the city hustle and noise.

Bensenville Booster Club regular meeting in the village hall Monday at 8 p. m. Let's have a good attendance and as we missed out July 4, why not get started for a big day in Bensenville later. A real homecoming and harvest picnic.

Those who were not at the last meeting surely missed a real good time. No one knows what is liable to happen any time. So try and attend every meeting of your club.

Friday evening, July 8 is Men's Night at the R. N. A. camp in Franzen's hall. The men will take the offices and carry on the work.

The boys will have a rehearsal on Thursday evening and should be able to put the work on in fine shape. The lady members will surely enjoy seeing their brothers put on the work and it is expected that every member will be present.

Edward Shaw spent his Fourth of July visiting his friend Martin Moran in Detroit, Mich. He went via the motor bus from Chicago Friday evening returning by the daylight bus Tuesday. Martin is a former Bensenville boy and son of Mrs. Moran, our local telephone operator, and holds a very responsible position in Detroit. His sister, Miss Dorothy, talked to the boys over long distance on the last Sunday evening and was assured that the boys were having a very delightful time.

Wallace Pilgram went to Des Plaines to spend the week-end and stay over the Fourth with his uncle Lewis Staede and family.

All who attended the dance at Keokam's pavilion July 4th had an excellent time.

While Bensenville did not hold any big celebration July 4th this year the majority of our citizens either drove to some near by lake, or took a spin through the beautiful surrounding country. In fact, it was a real Sane Fourth with very little noise during the day. In the evening almost every family had its share of fireworks to set off close to home. No accidents are reported. Business places were closed and all took a much needed rest.

C. J. Peterson had 15 uncles, aunts and cousins as guests at his home over the holiday.

Miss Fay Peterson will accompany the Zunker family to Long Lake Sunday at which time and place the Mannheim Church will hold its annual picnic.

The big sewer pipes that are being scattered along the streets are to be placed in the ground as soon as the crew can get them there and are not put along the street for children to climb up on and fall from and all children should take a lesson from little Donald Kirkwood who is spending two weeks at the George Shaw home.

Wednesday while climbing over the big pile scattered along Pine avenue the little fellow slipped and fell striking in such a manner as to cut a large gash in his head. He was rushed to a doctor to have the wound dressed and he is a lucky fellow that he was not hurt more seriously. Donald's parents are visiting in Canada and know nothing of his narrow escape from being injured so that he would have to spend two weeks in a hospital.

Mr. K. E. Lookabaugh, who operates the jewelry department of the United Outfitting Company at Omaha, Neb., spent the Fourth with his brother J. J. Lookabaugh in Bensenville.

Our prosperous jeweler, J. J. Lookabaugh has opened a jewelry store at 122 N. York street, Elmhurst. This does not mean that Bensenville is to lose its jewelry store but rather that its owner has branched out and is taking in a large field.

Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings he keeps his Elmhurst store open 'til 9 p. m. the same as other business places there. Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings he is in his Bensenville store after 6 p. m. Mrs. Lookabaugh attends to the Bensenville store during the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Leuhning attended the Sunday school picnic given by the Bensenville family in the Darwin Baker woods July 4th.

Miss Dorothy Dunteman, one of the little lady employees of the First State Bank, was another one of our Bensenville people to spend the Fourth at Kilbourn City, Wis.

Harry Nickademus has been suffering a case of neuritis almost ever since himself and wife returned from Asheville, N. C., a few weeks ago. They are anticipating returning to the southern climate for Harry's health as he says he can feel the trouble coming on as soon as he returns north.

The Milwaukee Woman's Club Librarian, Mrs. McKenzie, advises us that Fridays July 15, 22, and 29th the library will be open from 1 p. m. until 3:30 P. M. This arrangement in addition to the regular Tuesday evening open hours to give those whose time will be taken up evenings during vacation a chance to exchange their books. Mrs. McKenzie has worked hard to accommodate the many people who have made use of this wonderful library and this is only another step to please. Don't forget the additional hours at which you may obtain books.

The families of John Stueve, Sam Kleinschmidt, Chas. Standard Henry Leuchring, Wm. Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Knute Kleven of Naperville spent the Fourth at Fox River. The picnic party returned early in the evening to Itasca where a basket supper was enjoyed on the Leuchring lawn. The evening was spent playing games.

Mr. L. A. Smith of Chicago who has been yardmaster for the Milwaukee Railroad at Bensenville several years died at his home Sunday. The funeral took place from the home Wednesday. The Knight Templars of which he was a member had charge. The sympathy of all is extended to the family.

The Chas. Scherer family attended the Smith funeral in Chicago Wednesday. Mr. Scherer's son LeRoy being the only grandson present. A favorite with his grandparents, was with his grandfather at the time of his death.

Don't forget to attend the Corner Stone laying of the new Orphan Home building at Bensenville Sunday. The new home is going to be a grand place and noy is the time to see it under construction. At the present time the home has 57 children, 26 old people besides the Supt., his wife and the 10 employees. About one half of the children have been enjoying vacations at various places a few days since school closed but all are now back.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Franzen accompanied by an out of town couple decided at three p. m. Saturday that they would like to take a drive to Detroit, Mich. They made the decision quickly and started the same way and made a non-stop flight in their auto arriving at Detroit early next morning and returned Monday.

Yes, they took a side trip to Windsor, Canada, just to see the town and what they had in it. Report a dandy time.

James Tomcheff, popular shoe man attended a picnic given by his lodge Sunday. No accidents were reported. Business places were closed and all took a much needed rest.

The Robert Tonnig family left early Wednesday morning by auto for Elliott, Ill., to spend two days with Mr. Tonnig's cousins.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brown and son accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bush of Elmhurst left Bensenville at 2 a. m. Sunday and drove to Kilbourn, Wis., a distance of 238 miles arriving there at 9:30 a. m. They all report having had a grand time at the Dells in Wis. Mr. Brown said the residents of Kilbourn estimated that 10,000 auto drove into that famous summer resort over the Fourth and he did not believe that the number was exaggerated a bit. The party were all in their praise about the scenery around the Dells. They returned home Monday.

Mr. P. T. Teiderman, Sr., who is in his 95th year enjoyed his Fourth at home as a number of his relatives from Chicago came and helped the Teiderman family celebrate. Mr. Teiderman, whose advanced age has kept him pretty close to the house the last few months enjoys sitting out on his porch these delightful evenings.

The Kiwanis family enjoyed a family reunion July 4th at the T. H. Teiderman, Jr., home at Mannheim. All the brothers and sisters except Herman who resides at Hampshire were present. After the older members of the party had shown the younger generation how to play and win a baseball game all enjoyed a picnic supper on the spacious lawn.

Miss Lucille Bradford of Chillicothe, Mo., stopped off at Bensenville Friday and called on her friends Delia and Elvora Elfring. She was on her way to attend the Christian Endeavor convention at Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sibert and family are visiting Mr. Sibert's folks at Great Falls, Mont.

The Warneke family spent the Fourth at the Wisconsin Dells.

The Kleinschmidt, Peck and Leuchring families enjoyed a picnic along the Fox River the Fourth. Fred Elfring and family are entertaining friends from Detroit and Manchester, Mich. Mrs. Frances Newlin Anderson and daughter Lucille, of Chicago also spent a few days recently with the Elfring family.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Franzen have moved into the Baumgartner flat recently vacated by Atchison who have moved into the Fiedler home.

Little Louis June Ewald, born June 18, will be baptized in church Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Franzen took a fall down the back steps June 30, resulting in a badly fractured arm. She is improving nicely at this writing.

Mr. Scheneker, Father At the Orphan Home, Returns from Abroad

Rev. Scheneker with Rev. and Mrs. Ulassman left April 28 for a visit to Germany. Providence most certainly arranged for the trip to take place at that particular time as Rev. Scheneker had only been in his old home town about four weeks when his father was called to the Great Beyond. The reverend gentleman was pleased to know that he had been able to have a few weeks visit with his aged father than to be with him when he died. He stated that he had a most enjoyable trip both going and coming and that he found the German people getting back of their feet again after the war and in much better shape financially than he had expected to find them, from press reports received before he went abroad. He arrived home June 30 his birthday. When he reached the Orphan Home he found the front entrance beautifully decorated for his home coming. A large American flag covered the entrance while several banners were hanging on each side bearing the words "Willkommen", a large door mat just inside the door had the word "Welcome" worked in with beautiful flowers all the work of the children of the home. Rev. Scheneker surely appreciated the loyalty of his large family of children who know no other home but that provided by the church society. Rev. and Mrs. Ulassman will remain in Germany another month when they will return and take up their church work here.

Pretty Wedding At Bensenville
Wednesday evening, June 29, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Malkin, corner May Street and Pine Avenue, Bensenville, Miss Agnes Eggen of Calumet, Mich., was married to Mr. Richard Ramberg of Chicago. Miss Eggen, who for several years has taught in the Bensenville school had spent much of her time in the Malkin home and desiring to have a quiet wedding decided to be married at the home of her friends. No guests were invited. Mr. and Mrs. Malkin stood up with the young couple and the bride's father, who came from his Michigan home to attend his daughter's wedding gave the bride away. Rev. Render performed the marriage ceremony. After a short trip east the newly married couple will make their home in Chicago where the groom has a thriving business. Miss Eggen's many Bensenville friends join in wishing them a long and happy life together.

The Daily Vacation Bible school which has been in session the past two weeks in the Community High School building, closed Friday, with a picnic in the big grove on the Orphan Home grounds. School opened as usual at 9 a. m. but from 10:30 till noon was inspection time and many parents took this opportunity of viewing the many useful articles their children had been making during the past two weeks. Only a part of their time had been devoted to their hand work while a portion of the time was spent in studying Bible stories and learning songs. 120 children were enrolled while Mr. and Mrs. Render and their faithful aids deserve a great deal of credit for the interest they took in making the idea the success that it proved to be. May it be continued another year as it surely is beneficial to the children.

Craig, the contractor, who is putting in the storm sewer in district No. 3, the last. The men started work at the outlet southeast of the Orphan Home. From the outlet to Pine avenue, 1300 feet, the sewer pipe which is 42 inches in diameter, is made of pressed concrete blocks laid in cement and should last forever. This work is being rushed to completion so that the work on the paving project can be begun.

HIGGINS-CANFIELD
St. Pauls Ladies Aid had a picnic on the church grounds July 4 and all had a good time.

Mr. Sieving of Strasburg; Misses Theckla Stature and Hannah Maschoff of Hoyleton were guests of the Albert Sachleben family the first of the week.

Mr. Chas. Pohlanman died at the home of his son on Harlan Ave. June 30. The funeral conducted by Pastor Rochrs, took place from the house to Union Ridge cemetery Saturday.

Behrens Bros. have 30,000 of the finest cabbages you can find anywhere. Louis Linneman has 8,000 fine cabbages. These two could make more sauerkraut than all the people of Elk Grove could eat in one year.

JACOB SEGESMANN
Mr. Jacob Segesmann was a sturdy son of Switzerland, being born, July 10, 1859, in the beautiful city of Berne, the political capital of the Swiss Confederation. He received holy baptism and was confirmed in the Swiss Reformed church in that city, he also received his elementary education at Berne. At the age of twenty-two years he came to this country, making his home in Wisconsin for the first. A few years later he came to Illinois where he met his future wife, Miss Augusta Swantusch. The entered boy wedding at San Francisco, Cal., in the year 1890 and lived in California a few years when they moved to the village of Bloomingdale, Ill., and a little later to a place near Bloomingdale on a small farm. Besides working his farm Mr. Segesmann worked in Chicago for many years, being a faithful and valued employee of Sears and Roebuck. In the course of his happy married life God gave him eight children of whom four preceded their father in death.

His son John died in January 1925 and Herman passed away June 25, 1927.

On Saturday night, June 25, soon after his son's death, Mr. Segesmann became seriously ill while at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Peit, at Berwyn, Ill. The next day his children brought him home. For some days he suffered under a high fever and finally passed away peacefully July 1st. The cause of his death was pneumonia.

Mr. Segesmann attained the age of 67 years, 11 months and 21 days. His death is mourned by his wife, three sons, Edmon, Albert and Ervin; one daughter, Mrs. Wm. Peit, one son-in-law, two daughters-in-law, one sister, Mrs. Rued of California, and three grandchildren.

The funeral was held July 4 at the Roselle Trinity church.

Dzur & Karstens attended to the funeral arrangements.

MISLEADING SIGNS
It is a commendable part of the new federal highway code that no signs that would mislead the motorist be set up, at least along these approved roads.

That forces a great many refreshment stand owners to take down their glaring "Stop" signs, and put others that would advertise their business and not direct traffic.

This rule should help increase the business of such places by the addition of prospective customers who otherwise would resent being misled enough to pass by these stands no matter how hungry they might be or how seriously they might need help.

The real purpose of this rule is to avoid the repetition of Aesop's "Wolf, Wolf" anecdote. Motorists passing up two or three "Stop" signs that meant only an advertisement, might disregard the next that really meant "Stop" for the sake of safety.

Perhaps the law might soon find a way to force the elimination of the large landscape blinders, especially at curves of the roads.

Honor Queen's Memory
Queen Louise of Prussia is buried in the garden of the palace at Charlottenburg in Germany. A mausoleum and a recumbent statue have been erected on the site. It is the custom among admirers of the queen to place wreaths on the grave on the anniversary of her birth or death.

Oldest Fashion on Earth
"There is a vogue nowadays," explains Hazel Rawson Cades in the Woman's Home Companion, "for being well dressed." And nowadays, too, comments Constant Reader, "oldest vogue in the world." A vogue that vagues right along.

Many friends congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Emil Juhnke on the safe arrival of a charming daughter born June 24.

Alvin Behrens has a splendid patch of onions and the straightest corn rows we ever saw. He could cultivate it six ways if he cared to.

Behrens Bros. have 30,000 of the finest cabbages you can find anywhere. Louis Linneman has 8,000 fine cabbages. These two could make more sauerkraut than all the people of Elk Grove could eat in one year.

JACOB SEGESMANN
Mr. Jacob Segesmann was a sturdy son of Switzerland, being born, July 10, 1859, in the beautiful city of Berne, the political capital of the Swiss Confederation. He received holy baptism and was confirmed in the Swiss Reformed church in that city, he also received his elementary education at Berne. At the age of twenty-two years he came to this country, making his home in Wisconsin for the first. A few years later he came to Illinois where he met his future wife, Miss Augusta Swantusch. The entered boy wedding at San Francisco, Cal., in the year 1890 and lived in California a few years when they moved to the village of Bloomingdale, Ill., and a little later to a place near Bloomingdale on a small farm. Besides working his farm Mr. Segesmann worked in Chicago for many years, being a faithful and valued employee of Sears and Roebuck. In the course of his happy married life God gave him eight children of whom four preceded their father in death.

His son John died in January 1925 and Herman passed away June 25, 1927.

On Saturday night, June 25, soon after his son's death, Mr. Segesmann became seriously ill while at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Peit, at Berwyn, Ill. The next day his children brought him home. For some days he suffered under a high fever and finally passed away peacefully July 1st. The cause of his death was pneumonia.

Mr. Segesmann attained the age of 67 years, 11 months and 21 days. His death is mourned by his wife, three sons, Edmon, Albert and Ervin; one daughter, Mrs. Wm. Peit, one son-in-law, two daughters-in-law, one sister, Mrs. Rued of California, and three grandchildren.

The funeral was held July 4 at the Roselle Trinity church.

Dzur & Karstens attended to the funeral arrangements.

MISLEADING SIGNS
It is a commendable part of the new federal highway code that no signs that would mislead the motorist be set up, at least along these approved roads.

That forces a great many refreshment stand owners to take down their glaring "Stop" signs, and put others that would advertise their business and not direct traffic.

This rule should help increase the business of such places by the addition of prospective customers who otherwise would resent being misled enough to pass by these stands no matter how hungry they might be or how seriously they might need help.

The real purpose of this rule is to avoid the repetition of Aesop's "Wolf, Wolf" anecdote. Motorists passing up two or three "Stop" signs that meant only an advertisement, might disregard the next that really meant "Stop" for the sake of safety.

Perhaps the law might soon find a way to force the elimination of the large landscape blinders, especially at curves of the roads.

Cultivate Sincerity

Sincerity is like traveling in a plain beaten road, which commonly brings a man sooner to his journey's end than byways in which men often lose themselves.—Tillotson.

"Slush Funds"

The original slush fund referred to the money accruing from the sale of the slush of a vessel or camp. Slush is a greasy refuse from the ship's galley or camp kitchen.

Maine Led the Way

The Maine law, an act "to prohibit drinking houses and tippling shops," was approved by the governor, William G. Crosby, on June 2, 1851. Thus Maine was the first "prohibition state" in the Union.

Perfume's Odd Basis

In producing the perfume of the rose chemists combine toluene, a coal tar distillate which smells like gasoline, with chlorine, a poison war gas, and treat it with another poison, potassium cyanide.

Few Years Shy

The scientist says that the woman of sixty has a 20 per cent better brain than a man of the same age. But, for heaven's sake, don't let her know it. One of the reasons why she fails to get the glory is that she never gets that old.—Los Angeles Times.

Historic Printers

The firm of Wyman & Sons is said to be the oldest printing house in London. It was founded in 1637, doing the printing for the East India company, with one press. Benjamin Franklin was once employed as a journeyman printer in this shop.

Telling Age of Turtle

There is no sure way in which to determine the age of a hard-shell turtle. In most instances the plates are examined with a microscope and on these plates there can be noticed scale expansion. This scale expands as the turtle grows, leaving a ring of growth. These rings are counted the same as those of a tree.

Scottish Chiefs

Because the Scottish people were organized into clans led by notable men, the landed gentry of Scotland wielded a political influence which made the members, as a class, of greater importance than the corresponding class in England.
There are few classes of people so proud of their history as the Scottish landed gentry.

Pioneers

A Sunday school teacher asked a small girl the other day why
Ananias was so severely punished.
The little one thought a minute,
then answered: "Please, teacher, they weren't used to lying in those days."

Old Musical Instrument

Grove's Dictionary of Musicians makes the following comment on a musical instrument called the ocarina: "A family of small terra cotta instruments, in character somewhat resembling the flageolets, made of various sizes and introduced into this country by German or Tyrolean musicians. They are of no musical significance. They have a hollow, sweet sound, similar to that of a stopped organ pipe."

Light and Sound

The bureau of standards says that light and sound are transmitted by different media, and the speed of travel is determined by the properties of the transmitting medium. Sound is transmitted through air or some liquid or solid matter, but light will pass through a vacuum.

Old Anglo-Saxon Term

Quit rent is a corruption of the old Anglo-Saxon "lovit rent," or white rent, so called because it was paid in silver coins. It was an annual charge paid by a tenant to the lord of the manor in place of certain services which otherwise the tenant had to render, such as plowing in his lord's field.

Teaching by Practice

Samuel L. Clemens, better known as Mark Twain and much beloved, made a real contribution to the youth problem of our day when he said: "If you would train a child in the way he should go, you have got to go that way yourself."

Needs Special Climate

The forage plant, serradella, is largely grown in Germany, but not used in the United States. It is grown for hay and for soil improvement. It requires cool weather and a great deal of moisture for growing. Experiments in the United States have shown that it will do fairly well in Florida, except during cool spells when it winter-kills.

MT. PROSPECT

Mr. and Mrs. John Pohlman entertained guests from Chicago over the holiday week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Roman Anthen and daughter Mildred of Chicago were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pankonin on their holiday visit to East Moline, Ill.

Richard Huecker has taken over the Pontiac-Oakland sales in Mount Prospect. This makes three auto salesrooms in our village, William Busse & Son with the Buicks, Herman Behrens with Hudson and Essex and now R. Huecker with the Pontiac and Oakland. All report good business so prosperity must be here.

Chief Mulso has been busy directing traffic over the holidays but a better behaved crew of motorists could not be found. It was not necessary to make a single arrest in the three days.

Our new pump is in good shape and is just what we need now that the pavers have started going. Everybody is happy that Milburn Bros. received the contracts as they are doing excellent work and are working fast, not a slow man on the job and best of all they are trying to cooperate in every way. The excavations will be well under way in Busse's Eastern addition before the week is out.

Saturday was a record breaker for our village with four weddings in four hours. Miss Luella Wille being married at 3 p. m. Mr. Louis Harz at 4 p. m. Mr. Piepenbrink at 5 p. m. and Mr. William Meyn at 6 p. m. Rev. J. E. Mueller officiated at all four weddings.

Village Board Meeting

The Board of Trustees was called to order by the President, William Busse with all trustees present except Trustee Noll. The treasurer's report was read and ordered placed on file.

The board received a petition for walks to be laid in Centralwood subdivision which was signed by Albert Pick the owner, the work to be done by special assessment. The zoning matter of this property then came up and Mr. Pick's attorney assured the board of two lots which are to be deeded to the village for playground purposes.

Next the bills were all presented and it was duly moved and seconded they be paid.

Mr. E. Geistner was employed as assistant superintendent of water works. Henry Hammer and E. Geistner were appointed special police.

The matter of Mr. Lonnquist paying Shabonee Trail in the Country Club subdivision was up and the engineer was instructed to investigate the question of manholes being covered over with macadam

Just the immediate family were present and the bridal couple left for their honeymoon in the early evening. Mr. and Mrs. Gerner will make their home with the brides parents.

Another wedding took place at St. Paul's Lutheran church July 2 at 4 p. m. when Miss Lillian Klopp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gosch, became the bride of Mr. Louis W. Harz, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Harz of Ada, Minn. The bride was escorted to the altar by her father Mr. Ernest Gosch. She wore a beautiful bridal gown of white crepe trimmed with lace and net and carried a large shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bride chose as her maid of honor her mother Mrs. Ernest Gosch. She was wearing a dress of pink crepe. Mr. Martin Harz, served his brother as best man. The brides attendants were Miss Eleanor Rateike of Wheeling, Miss Laura Gosch, Mt. Prospect, Miss Carmen Wagner of Chicago and Miss Elsie Sellke of Des Plaines. They wore taffeta dresses which shaded from white to deep pink; pink hats and carrying bouquets of pink roses.

The chief of police was instructed to see that all water was properly metered and paid for.

The new building ordinance was reported on and came up for discussion, this was tabled to be called up at the special meeting to be held July 9, 1927, at 8 p. m.

George Busse presented several new forms for special assessment bills and our present bill with a minor change was selected as the best form to be used.

The Board of Local Improvements was called to session and after the various bills had been read and approved, Milburn Bros. bond and contract on Busse Eastern addition was approved and signed. Mr. C. D. Busse was appointed as commissioner to spread special assessments No. 19 and 20 which are the two new paving jobs to come up shortly.

There being no further business at hand the board adjourned to meet again Saturday evening at 8 p. m.

Little Misses Myrtle Krnich of Chicago and Leona Grommolt of Mount Prospect were the flower girls.

A reception followed at the home of the brides parents where one hundred and forty-four guests assembled for the occasion. A number of the guests came from Chicago and vicinity.

Chapter 18—Duties of Commissioner.

Section 2—The Commissioner of Canada Thistles shall diligently inquire concerning the introduction and existence of Canada Thistles in his township or precinct, and if any are found growing therein shall take charge of all such growing in the highway and on uncultivated lands, and take care that they do not go to seed or otherwise spread; and he shall carefully seek and learn, so far as practicable, the best methods for their destruction and he shall persistently apply in proper time, such remedy or treatment as he shall deem best calculated to prevent their spread and eradicate the same.

Atlantic City is reported to have abandoned the censorship of bathing costumes. Experience seems to indicate that while you can censor some things all the time, and other things some of the time, it is futile to expect to censor feminine dresses any of the time.

EAST MAINE

Ed. Steil and Wm. Goettsche motored to Fond du Lac, Wis., July 2, where they visited relatives returning home Monday.

The next meeting of St. Matthews Ladies Aid will be Thursday July 14 in the school hall. Mrs. Kate Beto, Mrs. George Engel and Mrs. Fred Finnern will serve.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Zeiler and daughter Hazel of Toledo, Ohio, spent Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Steil. The Zeilers, enroute on a motor trip to Wisconsin, stopped off to say "Hello" to their friends in East Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Ehler Kath, Sr., entertained a crowd of relatives and friends Sunday evening, the occasion being a belated celebration of Mrs. Kath's birthday anniversary. A pleasant evening was spent by all and as usual buncos served to pass the time very quickly.

Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Prideaux motored to the Wisconsin Dells July 5th, intending to spend a few days of their vacation at that popular scenic spot.

The picnic staged by St. Matthews congregation Independence Day was well attended and judged a success from all parts of view. There were games and feature races for the children and various booths and stands which claimed the attention of the crowd throughout the day. The parcel post booth and the fishing pond received their share of patronage but the main attraction was the Bingo game. All remarked that they had a pleasant day. The committee in charge are well satisfied with the results.

Another good ball game went up in the air Sunday when East Maine turned the tables on Long Grove and returned the whitewash received at the latter's hands some weeks ago. The Long Groves may have taught East Maine how to wield a whitewash brush but they failed to learn from them how to lose a game like true sportsmen.

The break came in the seventh inning at which time the score stood 4-0 in favor of the home team and thus it remained. The game was quite interesting while it lasted, Rohde scored the first run in the first inning, and although Rolla singled and Goettsche reached first when hit by a pitched ball, they died on third and second base respectively when Archam struck out making the third out. In the third inning Rohde scored on a single. Behrens hit a homer and Rolla scored on a double, giving the home team their quota of four runs. The Long Grove players were unable to get any hits off Tedie only three of their men reaching first base, two on walks and one on an error by Burmeister. In the seventh inning with one Long Grove man on base and one down, Holste sent a foul out over the third base line. Although the umpire called the ball foul, the visitors, afraid of defeat, opposed his decision and refused to arbitrate or listen to reason, and went back to Long Grove, giving to the spectators, a pretty good idea of what poor sports and hard losers are. Next Sunday the team plays Northbrook at Northbrook and will appreciate their regular following of fans.

Next Week's Pictures At Arlington Theatre

A picture worth going to see. A picture of high dramatic intensity, the Tiffany production "The Broken Gate." The story was from the pen of Emerson Hough, the author of "The Covered Wagon" and tells in graphic detail the life in a small community and the evil caused by the wagging tongues of gossiping old women.

Dorothy Phillips, as the mother who has withstood the taunts of many years is superb in her characterization while William Collier, Jr., as the young son and Jean Arthur as his sweetheart at the Arlington Theatre Sunday, July 10.

J. F. MacDonald in Fox Film J. Farrel MacDonald, Fox Films comedian, has "gone bad" again. Previously, John Ford made him bad. This time it is Howard Hawks. "Joe" as he is popularly known, was telling Louis Fazenda about it. "In Ford's picture, '3 Bad Men,' I was one of those roly and ready eggs, bound to see it through if it cost an eye," said MacDonald.

Hawks has surrounded MacDonald and Miss Fazenda with a strong cast in "Cradle Snatchers" which is coming to the Arlington Theatre Monday and Tuesday, July 11 and 12, a church choir was enlisted from a Los Angeles church and a complete church service was carried out in order that the actors might all be in the properly reverent mood.

Lillian Gish plays the tragic "Hester Prynne" in the colorful filmization of Nathaniel Hawthorne's classic story of Puritan days.

WHEELING

The electrical storm that broke the hot wave of last week brought a much needed refreshing rain while it helped have with electric service, trees, etc. Half of the village were without electric power until late the following day. Mr. Jacob Hank's residence was struck by a cold shaft which did no damage other than a broken window and several loosened clapboards. It entered the house near the telephone and left by way of the kitchen sink, knocking down a pail from the sink in its hurried exit. The two stately cottonwoods at Milwaukee and Dundee corner were also targets of the storm which left along the trunk of one of the trees and threw splinters across the street.

In spite of the handicap of no electric lights, the pupils of the Misses Luella and Edith Weidner entertained their parents and friends at a musical recital held in the Presbyterian church last Friday evening.

Mr. Clifford Olson, our druggist, has moved into one of the A. Ut-padel flats.

Miss Eleanor Metz has returned to Wheeling, after spending the winter with her brother in Albany, N. Y.

Little Dorothy Meyer of Elm-hurst is spending a week with her grandparents here.

Mrs. Sandberg of Fox River, Wis., spent the Fourth with her daughters here.

Mrs. McConnell and daughter Ruth of Chicago spent the week-end with Mrs. C. Dickhoff.

Mrs. C. Kotwitz and several children of Janesville, Wis., visited relatives here over the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brumm are rejoicing over the arrival of an infant son born Sunday evening, July 3rd.

Mrs. Erick Wenzlaff left Monday morning on a hurried trip to Germany having been called by the serious illness of her mother there.

Mrs. John Keil and children of Maywood spent last week with her parents here.

Miss Adele Richmann visited at the Gieske home last Saturday.

Mr. W. G. Steuer and his skillfully trained police dog "Flash" are in California where they hope to gain an entrance into the movie world.

Gertrude Ederle thinks Lind-bergh should cash in on his flight; and as we remember it, Gerty, after paying all her managers and press agents, had about enough left to buy herself an ice cream cone.

between the exit marches of the theatres and the parade of milk wagons in the early morning is vividly revealed in "Broadway Nights," Robert Kane's new film featuring Lois Wilson and Sam Hardy at the Arlington Theatre, Thursday and Friday, July 14 and 15.

The Soul's Decay
A dying body is a calamity, but shall we therefore look with contempt upon a dying soul? His soul is dead who is without self-respect. The man who yields to the brute force of the majority, to the vicious power of ridicule, to the subtle strength of inertia, and turns his back to the ancient traditions of his group, that man's self-respect is deserting him; his soul is dying.—Dr. Norman Salt.

First Side-Saddle
It is said that the side-saddle was introduced for use of a queen who was deformed and could not ride astride. The fashion set by royalty was followed by others, until almost all women of western countries were using the side-saddle.

Regarding Cosmetics
It is curious that a woman will insist on paying extra for strictly fresh eggs, but will be perfectly willing to trust her face to people and preparations which promise things her common sense should tell her they can't fulfill.—Woman's Home Companion.

Riches at Command
The most precious things of life are near at hand, without money and without price. Each of you has the whole wealth of the universe at your very doors. All that I ever had or still have, may be yours by stretching forth your hand and taking it.—John Burroughs.

The Silent Salesman—Where People Buy, Sell and Exchange at a Minimum Cost.

I Recommend and Can Secure for You Hurlbut's 'Story of the Bible'

It contains a hundred and eighty stories of the Old and New Testaments, with a large number of colorful pictures which delight the eye of the child.

The Bible language is preserved, yet the stories are told so that children can understand. We use these stories in our family worship.

Children beg for these great true stories of Abraham, and Moses, and Jesus. They like them better than fairy tales.

This useful book costs about the price of one pair of children's shoes. It will last for years. But it has just secured for one cultured mother her third copy. If interested call Palatine 105-J or, address Rev. W. C. Stauffer, Palatine.

All the Difference

A contractor who professes to be fond of children became very angry because some little fellow stepped on a new pavement before it was dry. His wife rebuked him. "I thought you loved children," she said. "I do in the abstract, but not in the concrete," he replied.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Dual Strawberries

The exact reason why the strawberry leaf is used as the insignia on the English dual coronet is not known. Various decorative leaves were employed in heraldry and the dual coronet in its present form was decided upon by Charles II.

Good Medicine

A doctor and a jurist both declare that a new hat is a splendid tonic for the average woman. Rather tough, though, if the lady wishes her tonic before every meal. The trouble is that she has to shake the husband before taking.

Uses of Poverty

Poverty has played fairly god-mother to many a man; not by changing him in the twinkling of an eye to something else, but by teaching him slowly and silently the lessons of industry and patience and courage and hope, until he found himself at last, only half-realizing how, a rich man in all that counts most.—Youth's Companion.

Kissing Should Be Taught

Professor Nyrop of Copenhagen university is quoted as saying that kissing is a science and eventually will be taught in universities. Probably by some nervous old fellow with long whiskers. That certainly would take the poetry out of it.—Capper's Weekly.

Powerful Organization

The American Bankers' association has a membership of over 21,000 banks out of a reported total of 28,000 banks of all kinds in the country. The banks within the association have estimated capital funds of about $7,000,000,000, and total resources of $58,500,000,000.

If Lindbergh should be asked what he wants most now, he would probably say a chance to put on his overalls and go to work on his plane.

Testing Times

ON a levee at a bend in the Mississippi a thousand men were building with sand-bags a second-line defense against rising waters which threatened hundreds of miles of fertile cropland. Over a telephone, housed in a wooden box nailed to a tree, an engineer was talking to headquarters—reporting on the progress of the work, asking for reinforcements and additional material, receiving Weather Bureau forecasts which would be vitally important in planning the strategy of this grim battle.

The telephone had been put in service but a few minutes before, after a construction crew had worked from sunrise to sunset, often waist-deep in swamp water.

Such is telephone service in emergency—service in which telephone men and women do very much the same things they do every day, but do them under conditions that give vivid emphasis to the import of their efficiency, devotion, and fidelity to public interests.

To The Savers Of Palatine

Do you know that CHICAGO MONEY is drawing dividends from YOUR TOWN? Strange as it may seem this has been the case in nearly every suburb in which we have operated in the past twenty years.

Just because you know what the value of Palatine property USED to be, make the mistake of believing present prices to be beyond your means.

DO NOT

Acres at farm prices are a thing of the past in Palatine. Your town is rapidly becoming a Chicago suburb, and although farms immediately adjoining Palatine are a thing of the past,

You Can Now Buy At So Much Per Lot

Within the next few years the price per LOT will pass and

You Will Be Selling by The Foot

According to the country's greatest statisticians, the purchase of Real Estate by contract is the best known means for systematic savings.

Because we believe that the money savers of Palatine who are not already making monthly deposits toward a lot in our property along Plum Grove Road will adopt this systematic savings plan if they knew how easy it will be to accumulate a good sum of money, which, while in the process of accumulation is constantly increasing in value, we wish you to consider the following information.

WITH ONLY $100 CASH

you can secure a 60 foot lot in our Plum Grove Development, which portends to be one of the fastest developing subdivisions we have offered in many years. Then on the balance of the purchase price; This amount buys a $500 lot, of which we have many. Regardless of price, our terms are 20 per cent down and 1 per cent per month.

PAY ONLY $5 A MONTH
